

DOCTORS' DAY CELEBRATION AT
A. M. Shaikh Homeopathic Medical College, Belgaum

In commemoration of Dr.B.Roy, Doctors Day was being observed at A.M.Shaikh Homeopathic Medical College on the 1st July 2010. Well Known Surgeon Dr.Dilip S.Khot and ENT Surgeon Dr.Satish A.Yalgi of Belgaum were the Chief Guests for the said function. Both Dr D.S Khot & Dr Satish Yalgi were faculty of the prestigious A.M.Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College in its formative years

The program began with the welcome speech by Dr. Nahida Mulla, which was followed by felicitation of the Chief guests by Dr.Sabina Abid Ali, Secretary, Shaikh Group of Institution and Dr. M. A. Udachankar, Principal. Remembering Dr. B. C. Roy, the Chief Guest Dr. D. S. Khot shared his personal experiences and also the lessons one has to learn from the life of Dr. B. C. Roy. He also spoke on APCRI, which is his initiative for preventing Rabies in India. Dr. S. A. Yalgi emphasized the importance of doctors entering the field of politics and serving the needy and poor. He also stressed the importance of Character in one's life and how all the other qualities are directly dependent on a Character of an individual. He appreciated the vision and punctuality of late Dr. A. M. Shaikh, who left no stone unturned to give quality education to the needy and the poor from past four decades. Both the Chief Guests expressed their happiness and pleasure of being a part of the function and congratulated the college for organizing the same in a professional way.

Presidential remarks were given by Dr. M. A. Udachankar and Dr. Sabiha Mulla proposed the vote of thanks. The entire function was organized and well co-ordinated by the Department of Practice of Medicine and anchored by Dr. Tabassum Mokashi.