enhance continuously the values in imparting Quality Education through Satisfying the internal & external customers needs on a continuous basis.

HOMOEOPATHY

It is a new system of medicine discovered by the celebrated german physician and scientist Dr. Samuel Hahnemann.

During the last 220 years Homoeopathy has made tremendous progress and spread far and wide all over the world. Basically, it aims at curing diseases and not merely relieving or suppressing symptoms

The College offers modern & internationally recognized high quality education We have qualified and highly experienced faculty members who are specialised in their own respective fields

Most of university rank holders are from A.M Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical college since affiliation

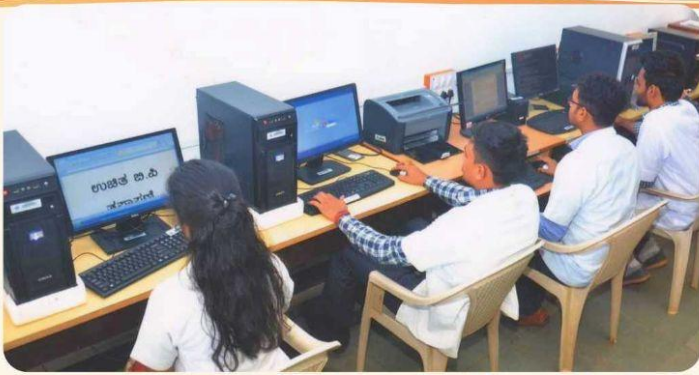

College has an attached well equipped multispeciality Hospital with Homoeopathy & Modern Medicine wings.

The college has fully computerized modern library with excellent collection of over 10,000 books and journals

Keeping pace with the modern technology, the college has a state-of-the-art computer lab, where students are trained professionally.

The institution firmly believes in the overall personality development of the students. Regular cultural & sports activities are organized to bring to surface the latent talents of students.

The college has introduced a new concept called Batch Mentor professor. A senior faculty will be in charge of a particular batch during their entire stay in the campus. He will be a friend, philosopher and guide to the students and would maintain close interaction with every parent.

Principals of over 18 leading college in India, have been the proud products of our college.
