

THE CELEBRATION OF TULSIDAS JAYANTI

Belgaum Institute of Management Studies celebrated Tulsidas Jayanti with great devotion and enthusiasm.

The celebration focused on the life and teachings of Goswami Tulsidas, the great saint, poet, and philosopher known for composing the epic Ramcharitmanas, which narrates the life of Lord Rama in Awadhi language. His teachings promote devotion, righteousness, humility, and truth, and continue to inspire millions of followers across India and beyond.

On this occasion, the traditions and spiritual significance of Tulsidas Jayanti were shared. Tulsidas is revered for his deep devotion to Lord Rama and for spreading the values of Bhakti (devotion) and Dharma (righteousness). The celebration included recitations from the Ramcharitmanas, devotional songs, and reflections on his contributions to Indian literature and spirituality.

Prof. Prakash Kamble delivered an insightful speech on the life, legacy, and spiritual influence of Tulsidas. He emphasized the continued relevance of Tulsidas' teachings in today's world.

The Principal, Miss, Roopa Sakri, and Vice Principal, Mr. S.B. Hunshyal, were present for the event and participated in a photo session with the staff and students.

The event was organized by STE Nominees, Lecturers Ms. Laxmi Kamble and Mr. Akshay Kamble, with active involvement from all faculty members and students, making the celebration both meaningful and inspirational.

All faculty and students of BIMS Degree College organized this event.
